

Inhalation of Air Through Abducted Vocal Folds

Air is inhaled through the mouth and nose and travels downward past abducted (open) vocal folds through the trachea (windpipe).

For more information about how your voice works please visit www.singlikeastar.com

